CULTIVATING A LIFESTYLE OF PRAYER & FASTING

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where He prayed.

MARK 1:35

Prayer is most effective when it isn't something we do every now and then, but when it's a lifestyle we cultivate. To understand how to have a lifestyle of prayer, we can look at the example Jesus gave during His life on earth.

HAVE A CERTAIN TIME

Jesus got up early in the morning to spend time with His Heavenly Father. Make a daily appointment with God — whether it's first thing in the morning, at lunch, or in the evening — and faithfully keep it.

HAVE A CERTAIN PLACE

Jesus had a specific place He went to pray. Having a designated place to pray helps us remove distractions and frees us to worship and pray out loud.

HAVE A CERTAIN PLAN

When Jesus taught His disciples how to pray, He gave them a prayer outline. We call it "The Lord's Prayer." As we pray every day, our plans for our prayer time can vary, maybe including worship music, Bible reading, and quiet time to listen to God. It doesn't always have to look the same; it just helps when we have a plan for connecting regularly with God.

Fasting Guidelines

In Isaiah 58, God ordained fasting to (1) loosen the bonds of wickedness in our lives; (2) undo heavy burdens in the lives of others; (3) help the oppressed be set free as we minister to them by the anointing of the Spirit; (4) break every yoke of the religious spirit; (5) give bread to the hungry and provide the poor with housing; (6) allow the light of revelation in God's Word to break forth in us like the morning; (7) allow our emotional and physical health to speedily spring forth; (8) cause righteousness to break forth in the places where we struggle; and (9) cause the glory and power of the Lord to operate in our ministries.

What is Fasting?

In the scripture, Fasting is primarily to abstain from food. It is intentionally concentrating on the Lord, His holiness, His Kingdom, and His will. Normally, when a person is full of food, the desires of the physical body are very strong as well as the desires of the soul—that is, the will, the mind and the emotions. During fasting the desires of the body are greatly reduced and the spirit rises and soars, controlling the soul. This means that spiritual reality is more easily discerned by a fasting person than by one who is not fasting.

How to Fast

There never was a question in the mind of the Lord Jesus about the importance of fasting. He demonstrated His evaluation of the ministry of fasting by His own forty-day fast. He, however, taught very clearly how to fast. He taught saying,

“And when you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by men but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you” (Matthew 6:16-18).

The Lord Jesus said “when you fast” and not “if your fast.” He took for granted that all who are His would fast. He addressed Himself to three important questions about fasting.

In answering this question, the Lord divided those who fasted into two classes, eg., the hypocrites and His children. It is interesting to know that in all religions people fast. Fasting is therefore not automatically evidence of genuine spirituality. There are unbelievers who fast: Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, etc. They fast for varying reasons.

The Lord had in mind a class of people, the Pharisees. When they fasted, they disfigured their faces. They made sure that their looks were different. They were not satisfied with the natural impact that fasting produced on the body. They were afraid that it might not serve their purpose.

The Lord said that those who were His were to be different. They were not to look dismal. They were to wash and anoint their faces. In other words, their external appearance was to be given special attention so that it did not draw attention to their fasting.

The same lesson is applicable today. Believers who fast must pay special attention to their physical appearance. They should be clean. They should wear clean clothes. They should bathe at least once a day. They should brush their teeth once every two hours. Fasting people have a special mouth odor. They cannot afford to burden other people with it.

The second question was: who should see the fast?

Here again there were two different attitudes--that of the hypocrites and that of those who belonged to the Lord. The hypocrites fasted in order to catch the eye of man. They therefore did everything to ensure that man would not mistake the fact that they were fasting. That is why they disfigured their faces. The aim of their fasting was that they might be seen by men.

They fasted to impress men. Their preoccupation during the fast was, Have people seen that I am fasting? Have they seen how long I have fasted? Who has actually seen that I am fasting? They possibly thought of the various people whom they wanted to impress and made sure that somehow those people knew.

Those who belong to Jesus are to fast not to catch the eye of man, but the eye of God. They are to fast so that their fasting is seen by their Father Who is in heaven! Can you see the enormous difference between fasting to be seen by man and fasting to be seen by the Lord? How foolish to fast in order to be seen by man! Yet these people fasted for that purpose and many today fast to be seen by man.

The third question was: who rewards the fasting person?

The Lord Jesus taught clearly that the rewarder of the fasting person is the one whose eye the fasting person wanted to catch. The hypocrite fasted to catch the eye of man. So man is the rewarder of the fasting hypocrite. Anyone who fasts in order to be seen by man is a hypocrite! He receives his rewards from the people who see his fast and sing his praise.

Those who are Christ's fast so as to be seen by their Father, Who is in secret. He is not to be seen with human eyes. He is in secret and He sees all that goes on in secret. Those who fast for His glory labor to ensure that their fasting is seen only by Him. They want to catch His eye, and they want His reward.

The hypocrite's fast is rewarded by the congratulations and the admiration of men. The fasting of those who are truly the Lord's is rewarded by the One who sees in secret. The hypocrite has already obtained his reward. He received it when people looked at his disfigured face and exclaimed, “What a fasting man!” The reward of the one who fasts in secret is in the future essentially, even though he may have some of it now.

Types of Fast

You are free to fast however the Spirit leads you.
Here are some options.

FULL FAST – Abstain from solid food and beverages for 24hrs. Take only water, avoid juices, or stimulant like coffee due to its acidic content, or milk.

PARTIAL FAST – Abstain from solid food for an extended part of the day. Take only water. You may fast from sunrise to sundown or from breakfast to afternoon tea.

Daniel Fast - abstains from delicacies, meats, and wines and focuses on fresh foods such as fruits and vegetables

Absolute/Supernatural Fast - This fast involves abstaining from any food or liquids, including water (the fast of Moses and Jesus)

Preparing myself Spiritually

1. Enter into fasting with positive faith – Heb. 11:6, Matt. 6:18. You have a scriptural right to expect that God will reward you.
2. Plan your spiritual feeding. May be you can read a portion of a book day and night, or listen to sermon. Things that will help you stay motivated.
3. Do not wait for some emergency to fast – Ps. 84:7;
4. In the beginning, do not set yourself too long a period of fasting. Move on gradually to longer periods.
5. During your fast, give plenty of time to reading the Bible
6. It's helpful to set certain objectives of your fast in written form.
7. Avoid religious ostentation and boastfulness. Life and conduct should be as normal and unpretentious as possible. Fasting doesn't earn you any merit badges from God.
8. Keep a watchful check on your motives – Is. 58:1-12.

Physically Preparing for a fast

1. Resist the urge to have that 'last big feast' before the fast. Cutting down on your meals a few days before you begin the fast will signal your mind, stomach, and appetite that less food is acceptable. Weaning yourself off caffeine and sugar products will ease your initial hunger or discomfort at the early stages of your fast.
2. If on regular medication, consult medical advice beforehand.
3. In early period of a fast: dizziness, headache, nausea. After a day or two, these symptoms will subside.
4. Guard against constipation. Add Lemon to water.
5. It's scriptural to abstain from food and water, but this should be under the firm directive of the Holy Spirit. It should also not exceed 72 hours.
6. Break your fast gradually. Fasts over 2 days will cause your stomach to shrink. Do not over-expand it again. For health reason, you should consume small portions as you break fast, avoiding chilli or acidic food as much as possible.
7. Identify distractions like television, social media, games, etc. You should do this before you start the fast.

Pray for the judges of this nation, that they will seek the wisdom that comes from above.

"But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere" (James 3:17).

Ask the Lord to thwart the efforts of those who would remove religious freedom.

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery" (Gal. 5:1).

Pray for truth to become valued again in American society.

"Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32).

Pray that our nation will increasingly see that God is our only refuge.

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble" (Ps. 46:1).

Pray for our judicial system and lawmakers—that justice for all, tempered by mercy and compassion, will guide our nation.

"This is what the Lord Almighty said: 'Administer true justice; show mercy and compassion to one another'" (Zech. 7:9).

Repent on behalf of our nation, because we have turned from making Scripture the basis of law, leaving behind wisdom and instead, looking to ourselves for truth.

"We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all" (Isa. 53:6).

Pray that the United States will repent of its corporate rejection of the Word of God as the basis of law.

"How long will you who are simple love your simple ways? How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge? Repent at my rebuke! Then I will pour out my thoughts to you, I will make known to you my teachings" (Prov. 1:22–23).

Pray that a holy fear of God will sweep across our nation, leading us back to walking in the Lord.

"Who among you fears the Lord and obeys the word of his servant? Let the one who walks in the dark, who has no light, trust in the name of the Lord and rely on their God" (Isa. 50:10).

Pray for truth to be an established standard in our news media.

"In your majesty ride forth victoriously in the cause of truth, humility and justice; let your right hand achieve awesome deeds" (Ps. 45:4).

Pray that media bias will be replaced by fairness.

"The King is mighty, he loves justice-you have established equity; in Jacob you have done what is just and right" (Ps. 99:4).

Ask that Christianity will receive fair coverage in all reports.

"Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge, teaching you to be honest and to speak the truth, so that you bring back truthful reports to those you serve?" (Prov. 22:20–21).

Pray for another Great Awakening to sweep the nation as the Lord's people learn to humble themselves with a contrite spirit, and to tremble at the Word of the Lord.

"Has not my hand made all these things, and so they came into being?" declares the Lord. 'These are the ones I look on with favor: those who are humble and contrite in spirit, and who tremble at my word'" (Isa. 66:2).

Ask the Lord to bring revival to the Church in America.

"Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains would tremble before you! As when fire sets twigs ablaze and causes water to boil, come down to make your name known to your enemies and cause the nations to quake before you! For when you did awesome things that we did not expect, you came down, and the mountains trembled before you. Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him" (Isa. 64:1-4).

Pray for the preachers of America to fearlessly proclaim the Word of God regarding sin and God's love.

"In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage-with great patience and careful instruction. For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear" (2 Tim. 4:1-3)
